Form Submitted 1 Dec 2020, 8:12am NZDT

What have you learnt so far? *

We need to be flexible in terms of delivery times to acknowledge the impact of unexpected events such as Covid-19 on our delivery partners.

(For research) What findings have you made so far? (For projects) Describe areas for improvement, challenges or reasons for success.

What (if anything) have you changed in your approach and practices? Why was this necessary?

We had originally intended to draw on the eSmart Libraries initiative in Australia, but after consultation with our stakeholder group, we have developed a programme that builds on our Stepping UP programme, focusing on local resources.

Describe any changes from the original proposal and the reason the change was required. We may use this information to help others doing similar work.
