Project title *
Book on digital exclusion in New Zealand

Provide a short summary of the work that was completed as part of this project / research. *
The work I completed using this top-up grant was a continuation of the same project for my original on-demand grant (see my final report submitted on 30 May 2021).

The top-up grant went towards wages while I was a part-time unpaid Resident Scholar over the summer of 2021/22 at the Stout Research Centre for New Zealand Studies at Victoria University of Wellington. My focus at the Stout was on researching the history of digital divides, inequalities and exclusion in Aotearoa in international context. This history forms an essential part of my book and informs subsequent chapters on present and future divides, inequalities and exclusion in New Zealand.
Describe the "who, what, where and when" of your initiative.

Is your mahi for this project complete? *
○ Yes ◉ No
If your initiative is still in progress, pick "no"

Are there any areas where you need further support to complete this mahi?

What are the outcomes of this project? *
My time mostly resulted in research outputs. These included notes, analysis of data (such as census, living standards and household survey data), and academic and other information sources. The outputs also included draft manuscript and academic journal content.
Describe major achievements or outcomes of the project in terms of benefits for participants and/or others.

Who have you worked with to make this project happen?
For example, staff, volunteers, other organisations or support that has been instrumental in this mahi.

Describe any changes from the original proposal and the reason the changes were required.
We may use this information to help inform others undertaking similar work.

What did you or your team/organisation learn as a result of doing this project? *
I've learned a vast amount, which I continue to add to and distill into themes. The whole purpose of my project is to capture evidence-based 'lessons' from my research in book and other forms. There are no obvious or immediate areas for improvement, reasons for success or challenges for the work I did with the support of the top-up grant.
Describe some areas for improvement and/or reasons for success and/or challenges. How will the things you learnt inform future projects?

How will you share the outcomes and lessons from this mahi? *
It's still my intention to produce a book dedicated to digital divides, inequality and exclusion in Aotearoa New Zealand. I also aim to author a peer-reviewed academic paper on the history of divides in our country in an open access journal. My previous final report of 30 May 2021 has more on how I'll share the outcomes and lessons from my project.
What channels/mediums were used?

Which population group/s were affected by this project or program? *
Universal (no particular population)
Please choose only the group/s that were at the very core of this project/program.

Did you reach the audience you intended? *
Not applicable at this stage.
Reflect on who you set out to help, and whether this changed at all through the course of the project.

What has the feedback been to date? *
I continue to receive encouragement and support for my project from a wide range of people.
Consider whether you have permission before quoting any specific piece of feedback.
